

Natalie Nourigat

Director & Storyboard Artist

Honors & Awards

- 10 Animators to Watch (2019)
- Ringo Award nominee, 2019
- Eisner Award nominee, 2014
- Oregon Book Award finalist, 2014
- GLAAD Media Award nominee, 2014
- Included in Kirkus's "Best 100 Teen Books of 2012"
- OR State Treasurer's "Reading is an Investment" program, 2014

Software

Photoshop, Procreate, Storyboard Pro, TV Paint

Languages

English - native
French - studying since 2010
Japanese - studied for 8 years

Volunteering

- Rise Up Animation mentor (2020)
- Kitten foster for Sante d'Or (2020)
- Mentor for Women In Animation (2018)
- Mentor for Disney's summer Story internship program (2018)
- Young Storytellers mentor in Burbank Unified School District (2017)
- Created free art for NW Association for Blind Athletes, Dove Lewis Animal Shelter, and Bradley Angle House

Contact / Social

-  Tally@farbeyond.com
-  www.NatalieNourigat.com
-  @Tallychycck

Projects

"Iwaju"

Head of Story

Walt Disney Animation Studios & Kugali Media, 2023

"Far From The Tree"

Director, Writer, Storyboard Artist

Walt Disney Animation Studios, 2021

"Exchange Student"

Director, Writer, Storyboard Artist

Walt Disney Animation Studios, 2019

"Ralph Breaks the Internet"

Storyboard Artist

Walt Disney Animation Studios, 2019

"Bee & PuppyCat"

Storyboard Artist

Frederator Studios / Cartoon Hangover

"I Moved to Los Angeles to Work in Animation"

Author and Artist, 96-page graphic novel

BOOM!Box, 2019

Studio Experience

- Walt Disney Animation Studios (2015-present)
- Helioscope Studio PDX (2010-2015)

Education

University of Oregon

Robert D. Clark Honors College

Bachelor of Arts in Japanese, June 2010

